Dear Sir or Madam:

Application for a job as “Business Development Manager”

I write in reference to the advertisement published on the AAS website and this covering letter serves to show my interest to be considered for the position and also to briefly describes my suitability.

Details of my career progression and education background are in the curriculum vitae attached and I will be happy to substantiate when called for interviews. The opening your organization has presented an opportunity for me to work in a diversified setting, which I am willing to take head-on at this point in my career and life when I am still eager and energetic to learn new things. I also feel I will positively contribute to your organization as I always perform to standard and willing to contribute to the team to meet its goals.

I hope my application meets your favorable consideration and that you call me for the interviews.

Yours Sincerely

Palinji Mungoni
