

Newsletter of The African Academy of Sciences

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

- Submission Procedure: submissions must include a short bio including: contact information, name, mailing address, telephone number, E-mail address, or website. Please provide your credentials, expertise, training, company, and website in your bio. A portrait picture of your choice may be added.
- Style:
 - Length of Article submissions - simple is best, 500 words is ideal, 1000 words maximum
 - Articles should be sent single-spaced in Times New Roman, font size 12. Do not embed the article into your email—please attach it in a Microsoft Word document file. Add any pictures you wish to go with your article as a separate attachment.
 - Abbreviations should be written out the first time they are used in parenthesis e.g. African Academy of Sciences (AAS)
- Review and Copyright:
 - Articles already published in other magazines and/or newsletters will not be permitted for reprinting unless the article has included permission to reprint by the previous publication.
 - The Editors reserve the right to make editorial and literary corrections to all material submitted. The Editors also reserve the right to refuse any material.
 - Our newsletter requires full disclosure of copyright information.
 - Upon submission of an article, the author confirms that AAS has full permission to use the article in our newsletter and confirms that the exact article has not been published elsewhere. If the article has already been published and is previously copyrighted then the author is responsible for providing us with a written permission from the previous publishers to republish.
 - AAS publications are Open Access.
- What Happens after an article has been submitted:
 - Submissions are reviewed by the editorial team and if a submission is chosen, corresponding author will be contacted.
 - Submitted articles may be filed for future publication.
 - Edits are made as determined by the editorial team.
- To submit an article:
 - Please send your article to the editor at b.gyampoh@aasciences.org or aas@aasciences.org